1. Do you think people are born to be happy or unhappy sorts of people – or is it things that happen that make people happy or unhappy?

2. How important is money to happiness?

3. What are the most important things in making sure that a child or a young person is happy?

4. What are the main things that often make you unhappy?

5. What things are important to the happiness of young people?

6. Are there big differences between what makes adults happy and what makes young people happy?

7. What are the best ways of cheering someone up if they are unhappy?

8. What can young people do to help make other people happier?

9. Do you think young people in Montenegro are getting generally happier or unhappier?